Rehearsals:

Tuesday, April 1, 7:30 pm – 9:30 pm, Pennfield MS

Well, the week that we have been pointing toward since last September is now behind us. I have always been proud of this band and believed that we have something special. You simply proved that this week with two performances that most definitely impressed two musically knowledgeable audiences. On Wednesday we performed before an audience of people from all around the country. At the reception folks from the Mid West and even California came up to me to say how much they enjoyed our performance and asked more about the band. On Friday we performed for an audience of music educators from around the state and underscored what's going on in the band world around Lansdale. In 48 hours the Montgomery County Concert Band established itself as an ensemble of high musical standards. Friday night and through Saturday at the All State concerts I met folks who were at the concert and wanted to be sure to tell me how much they enjoyed it. On two occasions Mike Britcher made a point of complimenting the band. Of course, the challenge now will be to build upon the success of last week and maintain the high level of musicality we have achieved and to raise the bar even higher. I am looking forward to our upcoming performances, especially the May 4 concert. See you on Tuesday!
