The Liberty Classic Community Band Festival will take place again this year on Oct. 24, 25, and the concert is on October 26. It is sponsored by the Repasz Band in Williamsport. Musicians from community bands around the country get together to form a band that is conducted by Colonel Arnold Gabriel. They have a pretty good instrumentation this year except for trombones and could use a few more. Anyone interested in participating should go to the Repasz Band website for all of the information. Trombone players will get the early bird registration fee.

NOTE: The PMEA CD's are in. We ordered enough for everyone who indicated they wanted one and many extra. Please see Bob Platt to pick yours up.
